

Abstract

Research Title : Electronic books in digital printing of undergraduate students,
Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University
Author : Mr. Krairop Charoensopa
Year : 2011

This research aims. Creation of electronic books, digital printing. To find quality content and online tutorials by experts in the field of media production and presentation. And for the achievement of students who learned from the book. And assess their satisfaction with the use of electronic books. The instruments used include Electronic books, digital printing department. The quality of the lesson for experts. An achievement test. And satisfaction surveys on the use of electronic books. The experimental group of undergraduate students at a major printing technologies. The technology industry. The university study, 33 people, the quality of the content of the lessons of the book with an average of 4.53 and a standard deviation equal to 0.50 in good quality. Quality of the presentation of the lessons of the book with an average of 4.20 and a standard deviation equal to 0.41 in good quality. Test the quality of the lessons of the book with an average of 4.20 and a standard deviation equal to 0.41 in good quality. Achievement of students who learned from the book. The achievement of high school than before school, after a significant level of 0.05 and a statistical assessment of the satisfaction of the trial-to-use online tutorials. With electronic books. Found that most are very satisfied with. The average satisfaction level.

Key word: Electronic books / Digital printing/ learning achievement / satisfaction